I. CALL TO ORDER

ACSC Chairman Robin Morley called the Association of Carolina Shag Clubs meeting to order Saturday, September 24, 2022, at 10:00 am. Robin asked if there were any additions to the agenda. No additions were noted, therefore, a motion was made and seconded to accept the agenda as written. Robin introduced the A.C.S.C Officers, S.O.S Officers and SOS Board Members. Robin also introduced S.O.S webmaster, Mary Gregory, S.O.S. photographer Robin Bivens, ,SOS Facebook Administrator Vickie Harrison, Carefree Times Editor Janet Harrold, and SOS Company Store Manager Judy Vick. Robin also noted that Ellen Taylor was in attendance earlier and thanked her for all she has done for our dance over the years.

11. A.C.S.C SECRETARY'S REPORT

ACSC Secretary Becky Berry informed all the presidents that inside their packets was an updated Officers/Directors and Committee members list, the ACSC treasurer's report, and a flyer from Robin Morley and a voting slip for the election of the ACSC Officers. Becky asked if there were any corrections or additions to the 2022 Mid-Winter minutes. There being none, Becky called for a motion to accept the minutes as written. Motion to accept was made, followed by a second. The minutes were approved and will be recorded in the permanent records as written with those corrections made.

111. A.C.S.C TREASURER'S REPORT

ACSC Treasurer Cecil Martin presented the treasurer's report. Cecil noted that there was only 1 club with outstanding club dues at this time. Motion was made to accept the treasurer's report. The report was seconded and approved as presented. The Treasurer's report will be recorded as written. Cecil stated that the Charitable Foundation donated to the HOFF 1000.00, Ellen Taylor Foundation a 2000.00 donation, Camp Kemo a 1000.00 donation and Camp Cole a 1000.00 donation.

IV. A.C.S.C CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

ACSC Chairman Robin Morley asked Jim Hearn to come forward to speak on the CSA. Jim thanked all the ACSC Shag Clubs who helped make this year so successful. Jim stated that they had developed a new approach to get the word out for the CSA. They now have an app you can place on your phone, and it is a private site so you do not have to worry about getting spam from this site. Just scan the QR code and it will take you to the site.

Robin called Al Guazzo, Nominating Chairman to come forward to speak on the ACSC Board elections. Al thanked Minette Thompson and Donna Williams for serving on the nomination committee. Al noted that Robin Morley was running as Chairman, Candy Long as Vice Chairman, Becky Berry was running as Secretary and Cecil Martin as Treasurer. Al asked the club presidents to get out their voting slips and vote. All four were elected to serve a two year term.

Robin asked everyone to please be careful when walking on the sidewalks. She stated to please don't get in a hurry or walk while on your cellphones as several people had fallen recently. Robin also asked that any club still had any of their 2022 SOS cards to please see Wanda Cavin to return them and settle any monies that may be owed. Robin also reminded everyone that there would be a mini ICON Workshop immediately after the ACSC Meeting.

Robin thanked everyone for their donations to the HOFF and asked that if your club had not sponsored a hole yet to please consider sponsoring one for the golf tournament.

V. A.C.S.C VICE CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

Lisa welcomed everyone to the meeting. Lisa stated that there were several clubs who had requested a Past President's pin and for them to see her after the meeting. Lisa stated that her workshop today was called "Making of a Champion", Lisa stated that inside her sheets were a checklist for the club presidents to use. Lisa encouraged the presidents to dream big, set goals, to believe in your capabilities, to be willing to listen and to learn new things, to be committed to your goals and to serve with a passion. Lisa asked two club presidents to come forward and give examples of how their clubs had survived the pandemic. First to speak was Renee Baker of Lancaster Shag Club. Whit Blanton of Sumter Shag Club spoke next.

VI. S.O.S. CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

Ronnie Gregory, SOS Chairman, welcomed everyone back and stated it had been a good week at SOS. Ronnie thanked all involved who helped make Fun Sunday and Fun Monday a success. Ronnie stated that Duck's had come on strong as not only a supporter but as a sponsor to show their commitment to SOS. Ronnie thanked Pirate's Cove also for joining in again supporting SOS. Ronnie stated that SOS/ACSC officers strive to work with and support each of the clubs. Ronnie thanked John Carpenter for bringing back again in the fall Singles Night and felt sure we would offer it again.

Ronnie called Kevin Harrell to come forward and give an update on Fun Sunday and Fun Monday. Kevin stated that it was a lot of work but with the help of many it was a success. Kevin reminded everyone that the sale of Fun Monday tickets is what helps to cover the cost. Presidents were reminded to please turn any unsold Fun Monday tickets to Rosemary Parten. Ronnie stated that winners of Fun Monday had been notified and that Rosemary would recognize the winners at Mid-Winter meeting

Ronnie asked Susan Harrell to come forward to speak on behalf of Terry McCoy regarding the theme for the Spring SOS parade. Susan stated the theme for the parade will be The Good Old Days. Susan stated that Terry would speak more on it at Mid-Winter meeting.

Ronnie asked Foster McKinney, SOS Treasurer, to come forward and give an update of SOS funds. Foster stated that in the 34 years he has served that SOS had never experienced anything like the last five years. Foster gave out copies of his report and went over it with the presidents.

Ronnie asked Ron Whisenant, SOS President to come forward. Ron gave a brief update on card sales and stated that he was optimistic about the future of SOS. Ron recognized Mike Rink and Ken Hudspath, who were in attendance for the meeting and thanked them for their years of prior service. Ron stated that new card sales during Fall Migration were very encouraging. Ron stated that the HOFF Golf Tournament would be held November 5th, 2022 and encouraged clubs to enter a team or to sponsor a hole to support the Hall of Fame Foundation.
